Week 4 Term 3 –

Primary

Sophie, Isla, Lily, Bradi, Cristian

From the Principal

I headed out to bus duty yesterday to find the carpark almost full. The paddocks were filled and still parents were looking for car park spaces. I believe that yesterday's parent participation would have been our largest in a number of years. That is the excitement of our Book Week Parade!

What an amazing parade – with almost all students dressed up as a character from a book and carrying the book. And all staff on parade in their outfits – such fun! This is the heart of the Book Week Parade – celebrating the love of a book and a character from it. I have to say – seeing Harry the Dirty Dog as a character was such a joy. This was a favourite story for me as a little person, and I still own a copy to share with students. Reading is such a special gift that takes us into places – fictional and non fictional – where we learn and imagine. Book Week helps us to celebrate everything Reading! Thanks to our families for helping us to celebrate yesterday. Your commitment to finding simple costumes that represent the character is really appreciated. Can you recall your favourite book as a child? Maybe a favourite series of books? A favourite character? I truly hope you do. Mine are Enid Blyton's Famous Five, and The Little House on the Prairie series, which I still have in my bookshelves.

Thanks to Mrs Marston and her team for our school focus on Book Week – including the Parade and the Fair. Her commitment to promoting the love of reading, books and characters is just amazing and so special, and clearly so appreciated by our families.
